OSCAR ACCEPTANCE SPEECH

This Sunday, February 22, Oscars® will be handed out for best performances by real-live actors in leading and supporting roles, and every winner will deliver a speech expressing their gratitude. Some of these speeches will be moving, some will be inspiring and—let's be honest—some might be just a tad boring. We think a guaranteed way to liven up the festivities would be to give an award or two to a Disney character; but since Hiro and Baymax aren't nominated this year, we're letting you fill in the blanks to create your own uniquely Disney acceptance speech.

1. Disney Villain: _____
2. Adjective: _____
3. Name of Disney Parks Attraction: _____

Disney-est OSCAR ACCEPTANCE SPEECH Lover

I'm so humbled to be holding this Oscar®. Several years ago, (1. _____) came to me with the script for How (2. _____) is (3. _____) and told me that this was a story that needed to be told. Of course I was too frightened to say, "No," and I began preparing for my role by learning to (4. _____) and practicing (5. _____) The story of (6. _____) is such a (7. _____) one, and I like to think that I speak for him/her as well as all of the (8. _____) that do not have voices of their own. It is such an honor to be nominated alongside such amazing talents as (9. _____), (10. _____), and (11. _____).

Don't you think about playing me off, Mr. Conductor! I'm not finished! I would like to dedicate this award to (12. _____) for teaching me that hard work and (13. _____) can take a former kid from (14. Name of Disney Kingdom or Land) and put them on the big screen alongside (15. _____). In the words of one of my closest friends, "(16. _____). I would like to thank my (17. _____) mother and father, my delightfully (18. _____) agent, and, of course, the Academy for this great honor.
